White Robes! White Robes!

For a long time, no sweeter and better collection of music for SUNDAY SCHOOLS has appeared. If we consider the Hymns we find the best and most original thoughts expressed in pure poetry, of good lyrical character. Such phrases as "Pitying Savior, look with blessing," "Trust him ever," "The better years begin," "Only a little while," "Precious love!" "Ere the sun goes down," "The golden bills," and "A home, weary pilgrim," taken almost at random from its pages, indicate its tenderness and beauty. There are 125 songs, all good ones. WHITE ROBES will be mailed to any address for 30 cts. (stamps). By A. J. Abbey and M. J. Munger. Price 30 cts., or $3 per doz.

Cuticura REMEDIES

Have achieved the most noted success of any Medicines of Modern Times.

Messrs Weeks & Potter have never doubted the specific properties of CUTICURA, CUTICURA RESOLVENT and CUTICURA SOAP for the speedy, permanent and economical cure of Humors of the Blood, Skin, and Scalp. They are, however astonished at the universal success, for it was to be expected that in the hands of some they would fail solely from spasmodic or improper use of them.

They are enabled to say without fear of contradiction that no remedies ever achieved in the short space of one year the number of wonderful cures performed by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

SALT RHEUM

Covering the Body for Ten Years, Permanently Cured.

LAW OFFICE OF CHAS. HOUGHTON, 17 Congress Street, Boston, Feb. 28th, 1878.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen—I feel it a duty to inform you and through you all who are interested to know the fact, that a most disagreeable and obstinate case of Salt Rheum or Eczema, which has been under my personal observation from its first appearance to the present time—about ten (10) years—covering the greater portion of the patient's body and limbs with its peculiar irritating and itching scab, and to which all the known methods of treating such disease had been applied without benefit, has completely disappeared, leaving a clean and healthy skin, under a few days of profuse application of CUTICURA.

I can and do heartily advise all similarly afflicted to try the remedy which has been so effectual in this case.

Very truly yours, CHAS. HOUGHTON.

LIVER COMPLAINT

And Dyspepsia Treated by the Resolvent, Gains 52 Pounds on One Bottle.

Gentlemen—I have had Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia with running sores on the side of my neck for ten years. [illegible] I have been spending for eight years until I [illegible] got relief. Everything I ate distressed me. I got reduced from 1[illegible] to 132 pounds. At last I tried the RESOLVENT and it [illegible] on one bottle I gained five and one half pounds. It is doing the business, and I am going for its strong. Yours [illegible]

JOHN H. ROY, 44 WABASH AVE., CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 11, 1878.

NOTE.—CUTICURA is admirable assisted in cases of extreme physical weakness or when the virus of Scrofula is known to lurk in the system by the internal use of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, which is without doubt the most powerful blood purifier and liver stimulant in the world.

CUTICURA SOAP is an elegant toilet and medicinal assistant to CUTICURA in the treatment of all external ailments. For chapped hands, rough skin and tan, sunburn, and the lesser skin troubles it is indispensable. As a soap for the toilet, the nursery and bath it is the most elegant, refreshing and healing before the public.

These great remedies succeed where all others heretofore in use fail because they possess new and original properties never before successfully combined in medicine.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by WEEKS & POTTER, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes containing two and one half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake, by mail 30 cents; 3 cakes, 75 cents.

Hancock.

Mr Henry Moore died in Hancock very suddenly, on Saturday last. He was stopping for a few days with his brother, Pelatiah Moore and just before his death he went a short distance from the house to cut two or three small poles which his brother wanted for the repair of a hay rack. Returning with them he had nearly reached the house, when he sat down and expired in a sitting posture evidently without a struggle. His remains were taken to Gouldsboro for interment on Monday last.—A new schooner scow built, length 60 2 feet, breadth 18 2 feet, depth 4 feet and measuring 25 89 tons called the Scud has just been completed at Hulls Cove [illegible].—Nathan M. The ordinances of Baptism and the Lord's Supper were administered on Sunday, and a sermon preached by Rev. Jos. H. Taylor, assisted by Mr Baker of Colby University. All the services were very interesting, and the new enterprise begins under very favorable circumstances; there is a good religious interest. Rev. Jos. H. Taylor preaches every other Sabbath.—Capts. N. H. Means, E. S. Means and I. D. Bender have bought the schooner William R. Washington of Belfast, 83 tons. Capt. N. H. Means will run her in the coasting trade from Ellsworth.—Mr. E. J. Small, of Provincetown, Mass., is about erecting a private bonded warehouse at S. W. Harbor for the storage of salt in bond. He is going to engage in the fishing business at that place, having leased Mr. Wm. Newman's wharf and building.—The house of Ambrose Springer, South Franklin, was destroyed by fire, Wednesday at 6 o'clock. Loss $600, insured for $200.—Pinafore is a deservedly popular and ever charming Opera, and when given with such marked success as it was by the Bangor Pinafore Company at Hancock Hall on Wednesday evening, May 12th, it could not fail to be highly appreciated by the large audience in attendance to witness it. It was apparent by the unbroken attention, and the frequent and hearty applause. We wish our neighbors of the Bangor Pinafore Company abundant prosperity. May they be blessed in basket and in store, and in every other way, and may their shadow never grow less.—Ellsworth American.

A Republican State Convention

WILL BE HELD IN

GRANITE HALL, AUGUSTA,

Wednesday, June 23, 1880

At 11 o'clock A. M.,

for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor to be supported at the September election, and two candidates for Electors of President and Vice President of the United States, and to transact any other business that may properly come before the Convention.

The basis of representation will be as follows: Each city, town and plantation will be entitled to one delegate, and for every seventy-five votes cast for the Republican candidate for Governor in 1879 an additional delegate, and a fraction of forty votes in excess of seventy-five will be accorded a delegate.

The State Committee will be in session in the ante-room of the Hall at 9 o'clock, on the morning of the Convention, to receive the credentials of delegates.

For the first time in the history of Maine the attempt was made in 1879 to deprive the people of the right to choose their own officers, and to corruptly continue in power those whom the people had rejected. The authors, abettors and accomplices in this crime against free government are now seeking to come before the people under some new party name—availing themselves of an alias, the common resort of those who seek to escape the responsibility and punishment of their crimes.

Against these men, under whatever name they may appear, all those citizens who condemn the nefarious plot to destroy the rights of suffrage, are invited to unite, without regard to past party affiliations, to preserve honest Government for the honest people of Maine.

By order of the Republican State Committee.

C. A. BOUTELLE,
FRED N. DOW,
GEORGE C. WING, } Sub-Committee.
J. O. SMITH, Secretary.

THE ILLINOIS PERFORMANCE.

The first thought that occurs to the reader of the excited reports from the Illinois Republican State Convention, is that the serious contest in Grant's own State affords a curious commentary upon the assurance that he would only be a candidate in case there should be a spontaneous popular demand for it. Nothing is plainer than the fact that the Republicans of Illinois are by no means spontaneous in demanding a third term, but that on the contrary there is a very strong and earnest opposition to it. No snap resolutions or declarations that may be forced through a manipulated State Convention can in the slightest degree modify that fact or change the opinion of the public about it.

It is a very mild characterization of the acts of the third term managers in Illinois to say that they have have been essentially unjustifiable and unrepublican. The pretense that 58 bolters from the 191 members composing the Cook County Convention could properly assume to organize themselves into a full County convention and choose the delegates to the State Convention, was manifestly as ridiculous as dishonest. The packing of the hall at the State Convention, so that Senator Logan's remarkable resolution exacting a pledge in advance from any contesting delegation was carried by a majority of the unorganized and undistinguishable persons present, seems to be in perfect accord with the tactics pursued in Maryland and elsewhere, and a consistent part of the plan of the third-term syndicate to defy and override the will of Republican constituencies and delegates.

The third termers could not so easily control the Committee on Credentials, which is appointed by Congressional Districts, and the despatches show that committee was evenly divided; which not only proves that, in spite of all the sharp practice, the Convention, taken by Districts, was equally divided between the Grant and the anti-Grant men; but it also shows conclusively why the Grant men got up their bolt in Cook County, viz: because they knew that, with Cook County fairly represented in State Convention the majority of all the committee would be strongly anti-Grant, which would utterly prevent the seating of bogus Grant delegations.

The voting-in of 36 Grant men who were never elected from Cook County was a high-handed piece of business, and it required all such unscrupulous devices to pack the convention enough to force through a vote of instructions for Grant by 386 to 307. With Cook County properly represented, the majority for that resolution would have been reduced to barely 7 votes, and much more than enough anti-Grant men were excluded in other contests to have wiped out the majority altogether.

In view of the facts, and in the face of the extraordinary and desperate efforts by which the third-termers succeeded in getting a nominal majority of 79 in a Convention of nearly 700 delegates, the Republicans of the whole country will recognize a fine sarcasm in the resolve presenting Gen. Grant as the choice of the Republicans of Illinois.

In following this up by claiming for that manufactured majority in a State Convention the power to set aside the delegates duly chosen in the various Congressional Districts, and to designate instead men opposed to the wishes of these constituencies, Senator Logan has carried the third-term bull-dozing to the worst extreme that it has yet reached. At the sending of our latest despatches, at 3:35 A. M., this arrogant assumption was being vigorously fought by men holding credentials from the Districts entitled—under Don Cameron's National Committee call—to elect them.

Senator Logan will find that he is only winning a defeat! The National Republican Party cannot be thus taken by the throat by any Conkling-Cameron-Logan dictatorship!

When the hurry and bustle attending the reception of the Hon. John B. Foster are over, will that gentleman explain to his admiring neighbors why his name is not attached to the "final defence" just put forth by his former coparceners? Does the fact that the Hale committee is still in existence, and that he is now within reach of a subpœna, have anything to do with his reluctance to put himself on record in the role of the impenitent thief?

The London Times proposes to settle the Fortune bay difficulty by mutual agreement. That is the way bank robbers like to settle.—Boston Herald.

That seems to be the way the third-termers want to "settle" the representation of Cook County, Illinois, after they found themselves defeated at the primaries.

Joel Eastman, of Conway, N. H., eighty-three years old, intends to attend the Chicago convention to "hurrah for Blaine."

AMID FIELDS OF ICE

THRILLING ADVENTURES OF THE CREW OF THE WRECKED BARK GOODRUN ON THE BANKS OF NEWFOUNDLAND.

The steamship Alhambra, Captain McElhenny, of the Cromwell Line, which arrived at New York, Tuesday, from Halifax, brought among her passengers two officers and thirteen men belonging to the Norwegian bark Goodrun, wrecked among the icebergs off the Banks of Newfoundland on the 3d of May. The Goodrun was bound from Drammen, Norway, to Quebec, in ballast, and sailed on the 3d of April. She experienced heavy weather all the way to the Banks, and there encountered fogs and ice besides. Her officers report that on the 30th of April eleven icebergs were in sight, and on the following day she was completely surrounded by masses of floating ice. On that day the wind blew heavily, and the rudder was carried away, so that she was rendered helpless. Hurled about among the huge fragments of ice, she was every moment in danger of foundering. Her bow and sides were chafed and stove in, and, to add to the horror of the situation, when the fog lifted she was found to be near a rocky coast, with the gale still at its height and blowing toward the shore. The sea was breaking over her, and at times she was on her beam ends. That she would be blown upon the rocks was inevitable, but before reaching the shore she struck and grounded. As the sea continued to break over her the captain and crew were compelled to take to the rigging, where they remained two days and nights before they were rescued. The men describe their sufferings during this time as awful in the extreme. They were drenched with water, almost frozen with the cold, which was intense, and completely exhausted from the want of food and drink. At length they were rescued by some fishermen belonging to St. Pierre, Miquelon, and carried to that island, from which they made their way to Halifax. Thence they were sent to New York by the Swedish Consul, and from there they will be compelled to ship on some out-going vessel in order to reach their homes at Drammen. The Goodrun went to pieces soon after the crew were rescued.

After the arrival of the Alhambra at her dock a reporter went on board to verify the story of the sufferings of the crew of the Goodrun from their own lips. In their broken English they gave an account of their hardships and the dangers through which they had passed, and although it was no easy matter to follow them in their descriptions the scene itself loomed up vividly before the mind. The icebergs, each of them a huge palace of silver, the gale blowing with a fury known only on the banks of Newfoundland, the fogs hanging like a curtain between sea and sky, and the helpless bark dashing against the ice or rushing toward the shore were all parts of a picture which the mate of the Goodrun painted in words that were only made intelligible by expressive gestures. Then the two days in the rigging, expecting that each moment would be the last—cold, hungry, exhausted, and almost welcoming death as a release from the horrors of such a hold upon life. All this the mate told over and over again, while the others joined with a word, a look or a gesture. And now that the rescued crew are here they scarcely know which way to turn. They wish to reach their homes at Drammen without being compelled to ship to other ports, but their Consul gives them very little encouragement, and they say they can scarcely expect assistance from that quarter. As there are plenty of chances to ship from this port the Consul does not feel like paying their passage home, especially as the Consul at Halifax was at the expense of sending them here. Captain McElhenny, of the Alhambra, says the officers of the Goodrun who came out with him are both intelligent men, and he thinks their story of the loss of the bark trustworthy in every way. The captain of the Goodrun remained at Halifax and will return home by one of the steamers from that port.

NEWS AND MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Mr. Moody has left St. Louis for his Massachusetts home.

Gen. Jas. Longstreet, of Georgia, is to be Minister to Turkey.

A Providence man slandered his wife and she took her revenge by pelting him with eggs in a public street.

Newport, R. I., is ready for its summer guests. The painters, carpenters, gardeners and house-cleaners have been unusually busy.

Nearly 200 residents of northern Vermont have started for homes on Nebraska and Kansas farming lands. They go on a special monthly excursion train, and comprise whole families in many cases. Since January 1, over 1000 persons have left that section for the West.

The New-Orleans Times says that ex-Gov. Henry S. Foote's ailment is a cancer on his head, the effects of which have caused him great physical and mental pain. An operation, performed last January, brought temporary relief.

Queen Victoria and Princess Beatrice narrowly escaped an accident when out driving the other day, one of their horses indulging in a dangerously vicious temper. The royal pair had to take to walking until another horse was provided. On the day before the Duke of Connaught was thrown out of his dog-cart and seriously bruised.

William Wallace, of Norwalk, Conn., was found dead in a sugar bin in a basement Sunday morning. He had been on a long spree. Wallace always claimed that he was a brother of Lester Wallack, the actor, and that gentleman was notified. He replied that he had no brother in this country, and that there must be some mistake. He afterward sent a man to look at the remains, and deceased was recognized as a scenery painter formerly employed at Wallack's Theatre, but who had been discharged for habitual drunkenness.

THE MAGAZINES.

The catholicity of SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY is well illustrated by the June number, which must certainly appeal to a wide range of literary tastes. For lovers of light reading there are papers on Rocky Mountain Nights (both poetical and practical); Spring Hereabouts, i. e., in New York and suburbs, with illustrations; Thackeray as a Draughtsman, with over thirty reproductions of the novelist's sketches; Life in Florence, a sprightly paper from an American point of view; My Friend, Mrs. Angel, a humorous story of Washington life. The current political interest is appealed to by H. J. Raymond's journal of The Philadelphia Convention of 1866, and Henry King's picturesque sketch of A Year of the Exodus in Kansas, and indirectly by Principal Grant's third paper on The Dominion of Canada, dealing with its political and social history in an interesting and able manner. Other papers, more solid and of a curious interest, are Mr. Scudder's paper on William Blake, Poet and Painter, with portrait illustrations, including The Chariot of Fire, and others never before engraved; Rev. Isaac H. Hall's account of The Cypriote Inscriptions, the specimens of which in the Metropolitan Museum were deciphered by him; and Richard A. Proctor's Sunspots and Financial Panics, an intended refutation of Professor Stanley Jevons' elaborate theories, based on a former playful suggestion by Professor Proctor that these two phenomena are intimately connected. The re-appearance of the sun-spots, and the recent rumors of financial panic, give interest to this paper. Schuyler's Peter the Great is interestingly illustrated, and deals with Peter's first marriage, the administration of Sophia, the eternal peace with Poland, old Russian sports, etc., etc. Mr. Cable's Grandissimes is rapidly justifying the high claims made for it by the publishers. This installment is said to be the most dramatic in the story, possibly excepting the episode of Bras-Coupe and the closing part. The departments contain many articles of special or timely interest, such as The Political Machine; The Shadow of the Negro; Beaconsfield and Gladstone; Letters to Young Mothers; a review of The Art Season; Steam Catamaran, Seamless Paper Boxes, Cheap Ventilation, The Phonograph in the Moon two Centuries ago, Recent Books of Travel, Fiction, etc.; Regenerative Gas Lighting, The Culture of the Rose, etc., etc.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for June comes to us like the soft breezes of the young summer, cheery but not enervating. Its illustrations are the most beautiful that even the enterprising Harper has presented for many a day. A paper on "Spring Time," is illustrated with sixteen beautiful drawings, exquisitely engraved. A look at these is enough to make one crazy to spend the coming months in the country beside its limpid streams, and in its green fields and shady nooks. Published by Harper Brothers, New York, and for sale in Bangor by D. Bugbee & Co.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE for June presents an unusually rich and varied table of contents. Dr. Weir Mitchell's paper, the first of two, on the Yellowstone Park, gives the most vivid description of that land of marvels which we remember to have seen, and narrates the incidents of the expedition with spirit and humor. The Career of a Prairie Farmer, by Mary Hartwell Catherwood, is one of those faithful pictures of life which enable us to understand the condition and sympathize with the struggles of the pioneers of civilization in the Great West. Dr. Felix Oswald concludes his series of Summerland Sketches with a beautifully illustrated chapter on the Virgin Woods of the Sierra Nevada. There are other valuable articles. The poetry of the number deserves especial mention. Old St. David's at Radnor, by Longfellow, is in his happiest manner, pensive in tone, limpid in flow, and striking in imagery. Paul Hayne has a fine sonnet entitled Spiritual Illumination, and Mrs. Caroline A. Mason one almost equally good, called An Open Secret. Adam and Eve grows in interest, and there are several good short stories, while the Gossip contains some anecdotes about Carlyle, and other readable matter. This issue closes the twenty-fifth volume. The magazine is for sale at the bookstores.

Among the good things in the June ATLANTIC, we may mention Mr. Howell's "Undiscovered Country," Mr. Alcrich's "Stillwater Tragedy," the suggestive letter from an "Old War Horse to a Young Politician," which every voter should read and ponder, a carefully prepared paper on the "Political Attitude of the South," and a paper by Edward Atkinson of Boston, on the "Unlearned Professions," in which he includes merchants, manufacturers, railway owners, and other wielders of the capital and material forces of the community. There are many other good things which make this an excellent number. It bears the imprint of Houghton, Mifflin & Co., successors to Houghton, Osgood & Co.

POLITICAL.

Democratic State Convention in New Jersey.

TRENTON, N. J., May 20. The Democratic State Committee decided upon Judge Frederick H. Teese as temporary chairman of the convention. It is claimed that while the convention will not instruct, a majority of the delegates will be in favor of Senator T. F. Randolph for the Presidency.

The Democratic State convention reassembled at 2 o'clock. T. H. Teese was elected permanent President. Resolutions were unanimously adopted that the Democracy of New Jersey reassert the principles of constitutional goverment, civil and religious liberty and equal rights of the people. Orestes Cleveland, John P. Stockton, Hezekiah B. Smith, C. M. Zulick were appointed delegates at large. District delegates were also elected. Adjourned.

Workingmen's State Convention in California—Disaffection in the Ranks.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20. The evening session of the Workingmen's convention refused to reconsider the adoption of Kearney's letter as the sense of the convention, and after several attempts to get through a resolution looking to the appointment of delegates of the National Greenback and Labor convention, pledging to Thurman, the Democratic element of the convention carried a motion to adjourn till Thursday. The opponents mostly declined to vote and the convention broke up in disorder. The Greenback element assembled and organized as a new convention, and at midnight entered upon the appointment of committees on platform, constitution, and resolutions. The convention completed its business before daylight electing four delegates at large to the Greenback Labor convention, Kearney among them.

Georgia Democrats Exasperated.

COLUMBUS, May 20. At a large meeting of representative men in Columbus, resolutions were passed regretting the resignation of Gen Gordon, and saying that the action of Governor Colquitt in appointing J. E. Brown as Senator is deserving of censure so strong that words cannot express it. That Brown is not a representative of Georgia nor of the Democratic party and the shameful and disgraceful manner in which he has been foisted upon the people is condemned.

Committee on Credentials Evenly Divided on Admission of Cook County Delegates.

Finally Decided to Admit 36 Grant and 56 Anti-Grant Delegates.

DELEGATES ASSERTING THEIR RIGHTS.

THE CONTEST STILL GOING ON.

SPRINGFIELD, May 20. The Republican State Convention began its session at 9 o'clock. Every inch of standing room was occupied. The statement of the contest in Greene county by the committee on credentials was approved and the delegates admitted. A series of motions to adjourn, take a recess, etc., were made, principally for amusement, with considerable confusion. Mr. Robbins, in behalf of the Blaine-Washburne men, said the only way of getting an early report from the committee was by relieving it of a part of its labor. He, therefore, offered a resolution instructing the committee not to consider any claims by contesting delegates who had bolted from any convention which met at the place and time designated by the proper authority. This hit at the Palmer House delegation was received with tremendous cheers by the Blaine-Washburne men. The motion was tabled. A recess was taken until 2 o'clock.

The convention met at 2 o'clock and waited until after 3 o'clock without any business whatever being attempted. A resolution by Mr. Logan that the debate be limited to 30 minutes on a side, on the question of the Cook county contest, and that no motion to adjourn or other dilatory motion be considered until that question shall be decided, and that each delegation may select one person from their delegation, if they so choose, to present their case to the convention was adopted. At 3.45 committee on credentials appeared and submitted three reports which were read.

The first report gives the names of 36 Grant delegates from the first, third and fourth senatorial districts, and 56 anti-Grant delegates. Report number two recommends that only the delegates holding credentials from the Palmer House convention as representing the first, third and fourth senatorial districts, be admitted from Cook county.

Report No. 3 is signed by nine of the 18 members of the committee and recommends the admission of the 92 delegates appointed by the regular convention held in Chicago at Farwell Hall, and presided over by Elliott Anthony. The first report, admitting to the convention from Cook county, 36 Grant and 56 anti-Grant delegates, was adopted by the convention. The temporary organization was then made permanent, and a recess was taken.

A resolution declaring Grant the choice of the convention for President was adopted by a vote of 386 to 307.

Mr. Crosby, of Dupage, moved that the various Congressional districts select delegates and alternates to the National Convention, and that they be declared the choice of the convention, which would have resulted in the choice of Blaine delegates in several districts. This opened a great contest before the convention.

Senator Logan opposed the motion in a speech of considerable length, in which he advocated the right of a majority to send to Chicago a solid delegation instructed for Grant. The debate continued at considerable length, Logan speaking several times. C. W. Thomas of St. Clair, made a strong speech. He claimed that the call of the National Committee invited each Congressional District to send two delegates to Chicago. His district has chosen delegates who had credentials in their pockets and proposed to go to Chicago and assert their rights.

He moved that the committee should simply report delegates at large. Great confusion ensued in the convention and at 12.30 no vote had been taken on the amendment, but probably it will be debated at length.

A Movement Reported By Which

Blaine Will be Nominated on the First Ballot?

A Despatch to a Grant Paper.

BOSTON, May 20. A Washington special to the Traveller says it is stated on the best authority that an eleventh hour move in the interest of Blaine has been devised by which it is believed a nomination can be surely secured for him on the first ballot.

DAKOTA REPUBLICANS FOR BLAINE.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Queen's Speech.

LONDON, May 20. The Queen in her speech to Parliament, hopes the pleasant relations with the other powers will enable the complete fulfillment of the treaty with Berlin, which she regards essential for an avoidance of further complications in the east, speaks of affairs in Afghanistan, and says her efforts will be unceasingly directed toward the pacification of that country, states she directed the fullest information to be given them for investigation of the Indian deficit, invites careful notice to the important questions of policy connected with the future of South Africa; notice the slight indications of trade revivals, but states that the depression in the revenue is still unabated, and that no prospects of the income estimates being exceeded. She will not ask a renewal of the peace preservation act for Ireland which expires June 1, being persuaded that the loyalty and good sense of her Irish subjects justify reliance upon ordinary law. The provisions of previous Parliaments for the relief of Ireland have been serviceable.

Effect of the Queen's Speech.

In commons to-day John O'Connor Power gave notice that he would offer an amendment to the address in reply to the Queen's speech that the position of occupiers of land in Ireland deserves immediate attention, in order that their legitimate claims may be satisfied. Dwyer Gray will ask leave to introduce a bill for the suspension of ejectments in Ireland.

In the House of Commons the motion by O'Connor Powers to amend the address that the condition of occupiers of land in Ireland deserves immediate attention, was rejected.

Mr. Parnell advocated the suspension of the eviction act. The address was then agreed to.

In the House of Lords, after debate, the address was agreed to.

METHODIST CAMPMEETING GROUNDS. Rev. W. W. Marsh was in Dover Tuesday and has had the new campmeeting grounds bounded and surveyed. Other matters concerning the new location were attended to, funds collected for the prosecution of work, etc. Mr. Oakes, the surveyor, stated to Mr. Marsh that it would be very difficult to find so desirable grounds for the campmeeting in the county, which cannot be doubted by any one who has looked them over.

A SERIOUS ASSAULT. The Belfast Journal says Edmund Hollis, of Troy, was before Justice Wallace in that town, on Wednesday, charged with an assault with intent to kill, upon Newell Bagley. Mr. Bagley testified that he was waylaid on Monday night at nine o'clock, by Hollis who leaped from behind a stone wall, knocked him down with a club, then jumped upon him and beat him with his fists. Hollis went to the house of Mr. Rand, in the neighborhood, ascertained that Bagley was there, then went out and waited for him. While Hollis was beating Bagley with his fists, the latter said, "You are killing me!" "Damn you," said Hollis, "that's what I want to do." The Justice found sufficient cause to hold Hollis in bail in the sum of $1,000. Bagley was badly hurt, and bled from his ears and nose.

COMMENCEMENT AT THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY. This graduating class contains ten members. The following is a list of their names: George Allchin, Guelph, Ohio; Merrill Blanchard, Abington, Mass.; John Burr Carruthers, Portland, Me.; Edgar Millard Cousins, So. West Harbor, Me.; John Andrew Howell, Chichester, N. H.; Wm. G. Wade, Newport, Me.; Joseph N. Walker, Manchester, Eng.; Francis S. Williston, Newcastle, N. B.; Richard George Woodbridge, New York City.

SHIP BUILDING IN BELFAST. The barque building by J. Y. Cottrell, near the former yard of Henry McGilvery, is near completion. We have before noticed this vessel, and the remarkable fact that she has been constructed almost wholly by the labor of Mr. Cottrell and his three sons, within the past three years. She is a good vessel of 750 tons, bottom of hard wood, top juniper, planking hard pine. Her outboard and inboard planking is all on, upper deck laid, after house framed. Geo. W. Cottrell, brother of J. Y., has on the stocks a nice barque of 850 tons, hard pine bottom, juniper top, and hard pine planking. She has both decks in, and is finished save spars and rigging. McDonald & Brown, in the lower Carter yard, are building a three-masted schooner of about 500 tons, for Capt. Winfield Pendleton of Islesboro. Her keelson is in and she is timbered out. Will begin with her ceiling next week. Carter & Co. are building, for Capt. James McKeen, of Belfast, and others, a three-masted schooner of 350 tons, for the Jacksonville trade. She is partly timbered out.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC. We heard the present site of the old National House mentioned yesterday as feasible spot on which to locate the proposed Academy of Music. The property could be purchased at a reasonable figure, and it is reported that the owners would be willing to take their pay in stock. We are informed that a sufficient sum has already been pledged to erect the building itself, and if some such arrangement could be made to secure a location, the project would be successfully carried through.

RICH FISHING GROUNDS. The concealments of amateur fishermen are exasperating. They return from their fishing expeditions and tantalize us by their tales of big hauls without giving us any clue to the rich fishing grounds. Mr. A. W. Benson doesn't belong to that class. He has just returned from a fishing expedition with one hundred pounds of bass and landlocked salmon, and will inform any well-disposed individual as to the location of the identical pond from which he tempted them by hook and line.

THE OLD ORCHARD RAILWAY. The grading for the Old Orchard Beech railway was nearly finished Wednesday night. Trains will be run from the Old Orchard station where a frog will be put in to switch trains from the Boston & Maine to the O. O. B. & Ferry Beach Railroad. Rails for the new road are already on the ground and a portion of the sleepers, while still more are at North Berwick waiting for transportation. This will be the common gauge. The cars will be open, or observation cars, and have already been purchased in Philadelphia. The locomotive will be similar to those used on the Boston and Maine, only lighter.

FOR THE LADIES. A narrow plaiting of bright colored satin is now placed on the bottom of most walking skirts. These plaitings are frequently in most violent contrast with the dress. For instance, a crimson plaiting will be used on a gray dress, or yellow on black. They form a pretty finish for the short dresses now so fashionable. Skirts and underskirts are now made so as to form two very narrow points in the back, reaching to the middle of the skirt. The breadth of goods is placed where these points terminate, and either gathered or plaited. By this means all the fullness remains in the back, and in front and over the hips are perfectly plain. The very pretty fancy of extemporizing a morning cap out of a pocket handkerchief still exists. The pocket handkerchief is bordered with a garland of flowers, and is edged with lace. You take the handkerchief in your hand, and squeeze it into a puff, which you then pin on to the head by fancy pins—something in the way that gipsies pin their handkerchiefs on their heads. The effect is extremely happy. You will thus save buying a cap. With another handkerchief you can make a knot for the neck, instead of buying a ribbon bow. This is quite economical, and, moreover, is as pretty as economical.

FATAL ACCIDENT. Belfast, on Thursday forenoon, was the scene of one of the most serious accidents that has visited that locality for years, resulting in the death of Capt. Bonaparte Warren, of that city. The old schooner Henry, owned by Fred A. Knowlton, lies at Lane's wharf undergoing repairs. Two new masts have been placed on board, the last one having been erected but a few hours before the accident occurred. Capt. Warren was aloft in the foremast head for the purpose of fastening the spring stay. The step of the foremast, at this moment gave way letting the mast fall. In its descent the mainmast was struck, which, breaking off about twenty feet above the deck, also came down with a crash. Capt. Warren clung to the mast until the last, striking on the quarter deck with great violence. The body was literally smashed to a jelly, both legs and arms were broken and the skull broken in. Three men—Capt. Thaddeus Woods, David P. Gilmore and Adolpheus Stevens—who were at work on deck, seeing the falling masts coming toward them, jumped overboard for safety. They were all rescued with no more serious results than a wet skin. Capt. Warren was about forty years of age, formerly captain of the schooner Mary Farrow, in poor circumstances, and leaves a wife, four children and a dependent mother.

Police Court.

In the Police Court yesterday "Capt." Dave Adams was sentenced to ninety days in jail for drunkenness and the mittimus suspended on paying the costs.

Jack Fury received a sentence of thirty days and costs but the mittimus was suspended on condition that he would leave town. Jack promised, but at four o'clock in the afternoon he was back in the station again, and he will be likely to get a long sentence this morning.

THE LADIES' RELIEF CORPS.

Election and Installation of Officers.

This Corps, the object of which will commend itself to each and every one of our citizens, it being to furnish relief for those who are in destitute conditions from the effects of the late war, was duly organized in this city yesterday and is now in working order. A similar organization now exists in Portland in connection with the Grand Army Post there, and the following ladies came to this city Wednesday evening to install the officers of the new Corps: Mrs. Spaulding, President, Mrs. Whiton Sawyer, Vice President; Mrs. O. M. Sawyer, Secretary; Mrs. H. P. Ingalls, Conductor, Mrs. C. A. Jones, Past President, together with Mr. A. M. Sawyer, Assistant Department Adjutant General.

A meeting was held in the afternoon in Grand Army Hall, when the officers were elected and other routine business transacted. In the evening the officers were installed in the presence of the members of Beale Post and their lady friends, by Comrade Sawyer as follows: Mrs. Crossman, President; Mrs. Wallace, Vice President; Mrs. E. W. Preble, Chaplain; Mrs. E. E. Small, Secretary; Mrs. Tabor, Treasurer; Mrs. W. T. C. Wescott, Conductor; Mrs. F. A. Small, Guard; Mrs. Clayton, Past President. The offices of Vice President and Conductor were only filled temporarily, owing to the absence of Mrs. Atkins and Mrs. Patterson, who will occupy these chairs.

After taking the chair Mrs. Crossman made a few well chosen remarks and was followed by Post Commander Farnham, Post Chaplain Preble, Department Chaplain Howard, Comrades Boutelle and Seavey, Assistant Department Adjutant General Sawyer and Mrs. Spaulding and Mrs. Jones, of Portland. At the close of these remarks, which were well received, Miss Jones, of Portland, gave a piano solo, "The Old Oaken Bucket," in a manner that would have been creditable to an older person, and in response to an encore she played "The Turkish Patrol." Miss Field then sung "Forget me not" in a pleasing manner and the exercises of the evening closed.

The new Corps starts under favorable auspices and we hope all their efforts may be attended with success.

Day of Prayer.

In June two conventions will assemble—one in Chicago, one in Cincinnati—for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Presidency of the United States. The Woman's National Christian Temperance Union, deeply realizing the influence possessed by the Chief Magistrate of the Nation and the power of his example, calls upon the Woman's Christian Temperance Unions of the land to unite in prayer on Tuesday, the 1st of June, for the nominees of these conventions. Let us pray that God will direct these two bodies in their choice, and make Himself manifest in their decisions, and that the candidates set before the people may be men of high moral and Christian character, and possessed of temperance principles which involve total abstinence from all that can intoxicate.

AN OLD DOCTOR'S ADVICE. It was this "Trust in God and keep your bowels open." For this purpose many an old doctor has advised the habitually costive to take Kidney-Wort—for no other remedy so effectually overcomes this condition, and that without the distress and griping which other medicines cause. It is a radical cure for piles. Don't fail to use it. d&w1w.

Kidney-Wort is nature's remedy for Kidney and Liver diseases, Piles, and Constipation. d&w1w.

THE CAUSE REMOVED. Weakness of the stomach causes indigestion, and in that state no one can have good health. The People's Favorite Tonic Bitters purify the blood and strengthen the stomach and remove all causes that undermine the system. This life saving remedy is advertised in these columns.

In the cure of Consumption there is probably no known medicine equal to the Syrup of Hypophosphites prepared by Mr. James I. Fellows, chemist, St. John, N. B. A number of cases have come under our notice the past year when the results which have followed its use have been astonishing. We write this unsolicited by any one and advise the afflicted to try it.

THE MOTHER'S TESTIMONY. My little girl has been out of health for some time, and grew very much worse as warm weather approached. Nothing I could could get would tempt her appetite, and I felt very much concerned about her. After trying various remedies with no avail, I procured a bottle of People's Favorite Tonic Bitters, and contrary to my expectations, she is fast regaining her health. I cannot praise this remedy too highly.
